

Living Well Through Every Stage of Life Planning for What Matters Most

A Supportive Cancer Care Educational
Brunch for Patients & Families

Join the Supportive Cancer Care Team at Virginia Cancer Specialists for a morning of connection, conversation, and practical information designed to help you and your loved ones plan for what matters most.

Where:

Virginia Cancer Specialists, Fairfax Cancer Center
8613 Route 29, Fairfax, VA

When:

Saturday, November 7, 9:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Please RSVP by October 28, space is limited.
Registration is required for all attendees.

What We'll Explore

- Understanding palliative care vs. hospice
- Virginia Cancer Specialists Supportive Cancer Care services
- Self-care & finding balance
- Legal & advance care planning
- Having difficult conversations with loved ones
- Exploring what matters most at every stage of life
- Open discussion and opportunities to ask questions

Meet Our Experts

Hear from members of our multidisciplinary Supportive Cancer Care team, including expertise in medicine, social work, and nutrition, with opportunities to ask questions and connect.

EMAIL

VCS.Events@USOncology.com
TO RSVP

Email us with the subject line
“Supportive Cancer Care Brunch Reservation”.
Please RSVP with your full name as you would like it to appear on your name tag. If you plan to bring a guest, please include their full name as well. Registration is required for all attendees.

 Virginia Cancer Specialists
VirginiaCancerSpecialists.com